

MEN'S HOCKEY LEAGUE
MATCHDAY MEDIA GUIDE
19/20 MARCH 2022

THE HOCKEY WORLD NEWS MEDIA GUIDE IS BACK!

Welcome to this week's edition of the Hockey World News Media Guide covering the Men's Hockey League for the second half of the 2021-22 season. The Hockey World News website can be found at <https://hockeywrldnws.com/>

England Hockey have introduced a website where certain data regarding fixtures can be found whilst the problems with GMS continue. <https://matches.englishhockey.co.uk/>

The website is generally updated every 15 minutes.

The missing fixture dates for all divisions will be added next week, together with the missing early/ late goals and various half time and home and away tables for the Bottom 5, now that everybody has played in the quest to finish from 7th to 11th.

As usual, please bear in mind that this media guide is a one person compilation, so if you find any errors, please let me know, but remember that there is very little scope for double checking content compared with a dedicated media team and current circumstances are making data compilation more difficult than in previous seasons.

The design of the media guide is something which will also be looked at during the season, but the current priority is to try and share as much information as possible.

OLD GEORGIANS CLOSE TO MAIDEN TITLE

Old Georgians can clinch their maiden Men's Hockey League title this weekend with a win at Hampstead & Westminster if Wimbledon lose at home to Holcombe. Reigning champions Surbiton will see their defence end with an Old Georgians victory at Paddington Recreation Ground where Old Georgians won 5-0 in November and also beat Hampstead 3-1 at home in February. Hampstead are battling with Surbiton and Wimbledon for second place.

Wimbledon lost 1-0 at Holcombe in February but had won 2-1 in their third match of the season in October. Holcombe will need to rebound from last week's 8-2 loss at Old Georgians after a morale boosting 3-0 home win over Surbiton the previous week.

Surbiton host East Grinstead for the first time this season, having won 6-1 and 2-1 on their two visits to West Sussex. A defeat for the visitors will see East Grinstead confirmed as finishing in sixth place.

OLD GEORGIANS NOW HOLD 10 POINT LEAD

Old Georgians extended their lead to ten points over second placed Wimbledon in emphatic style on Sunday beating Holcombe 8-2 at St. George's College. Old Georgians led 3-0 at half time, Tom Carson opening the scoring from open play in the tenth minute with James Albery converting a penalty corner in the 20th minute and Sam Ward also converting a 26th minute penalty corner. Holcombe conceded two goals in as many minutes shortly after half time, Ashley Jackson scoring from a 38th minute penalty stroke and James Tindall scoring from open play a minute later. James Carson put Old Georgians 6-0 up from open play in the 47th minute before Robert Field converted a 52nd minute penalty corner to reduce the deficit going into the fourth quarter.

Sam Ward completed his hat-trick with open play goals in the 56th and 67th minutes before Tom Russell also scored in the 67th minute to make the final score 8-2.

Wimbledon lost ground after drawing a ten goal thriller at home to local rivals Surbiton on Saturday night. Surbiton led 2-0 after just nine minutes with Jamie Golden scoring in the seventh minute and Jack Middleton doubling their lead two minutes later. Wimbledon began their comeback in the 19th minute when Ben Francis scored the third open play goal of the night in the 19th minute with Ed Horler levelling from a 24th minute penalty corner.

Surbiton restored their lead just before half time, Luke Taylor converting a penalty corner for his 18th goal of the season. James Gall quickly doubled Surbiton's advantage immediately after the interval and Middleton gave the visitors what seemed to be a solid 5-2 lead with a second open play goal of the half. In the 43rd minute. Surbiton carried their 5-2 lead into the fourth quarter, when Wimbledon made a superb comeback, scoring three goals to salvage a 5-5 draw. All three goals came from penalty corners with David Condon scoring in the 55th and 59th minutes and Ed Horler equalising in the penultimate minute as Surbiton drew 5-5 for the first time since 10 October 2009 when they drew at East Grinstead.

Hampstead & Westminster joined Surbiton on 29 points and took advantage of Holcombe's heavy defeat to move back into fourth with a 4-1 win at East Grinstead. Matt Guise-Brown's penalty corner expertise earned Hampstead a 2-0 lead with goals in the 14th and 18th minutes, Louis Gittens pulling a goal back from open play in the 22nd minute. Within a minute, Kei Kaeppler had restored Hampstead's two goal lead and Guise-Brown's 51st minute penalty stroke ensure that all three points would be going back to Central London with his 16th goal of the campaign.

EXETER AIMING TO KEEP FAINT SURVIVAL HOPES ALIVE

In the Bottom 5 the University of Exeter will want to keep their faint hopes of avoiding relegation intact with a home win over the University of Durham. The teams drew 3-3 in Devon in Phase One, but Exeter beat Durham 9-0 on their own pitch when the teams met a fortnight ago.

Beeston are at home to Brooklands Manchester University and after two draws at Brooklands (2-2 and 3-3) earlier this season will want to secure their top flight status with a home win.

EXETER END WINLESS RUN IN STYLE AT DURHAM

The University of Exeter ended their 20 game winless run in the Men's Hockey League Premier Division in emphatic style, winning 9-0 at fellow relegation candidates Durham University on Sunday afternoon.

The first meeting between the teams had ended in a 3-3 draw in Devon in Phase One, Durham equalising in the last minute but the reverse fixture in the Bottom 5 was all one way.

Amazingly, Exeter only led 1-0 at half time, Max Lowrey converting a penalty corner just before the interval. The floodgates opened in the third quarter, Charlie Taylor's 41st minute open play goal and Lowrey's second penalty corner of the match two minutes later quickly leaving Durham 3-0 down. Rhys Bradshaw added the fourth goal from the penalty spot in the 51st minute before Durham were swamped by five open play goals in the fourth quarter.

Ben Fox started the final quarter rout in the 58th minute before Jacob Payton scored in the 61st and 62nd minutes. Seb Ansley made it eight with four minutes to play with Billy Collins completing an historic day for the Devon University in the last minute.

Exeter had last won 3-2 at Brooklands Manchester University on 22 February 2020 and kept their first clean sheet since they won 3-0 at Reading on 29 September 2019.

Exeter closed to within three points of Durham and six points of Brooklands Manchester University, who lost 6-2 at home to Oxted. Brooklands trailed 3-0 at the break, Nick Giles scoring in the second minute from open play; Lewis Fraser converting a twelfth minute penalty corner and Sam Driver scoring from open play in the 32nd minute. Jamie Batten's 40th minute goal and Driver's 44th minute effort, both from open play extended the lead to 5-0 before Brooklands responded through Peter Flanagan's 53rd minute penalty corner conversion and James Lavers' open play goal on the hour mark. Chris Webster scored Oxted's sixth goal three minutes from the end.

With everybody apart from Durham University having played thirteen games (Durham have played a game more) Oxted have a four point advantage over eighth placed Beeston (who had their first bye week) with two of Brooklands, Durham University and Exeter likely to go down at the end of the season.
