THE HOCKEY WORLD NEWS MEDIA GUIDE

Welcome to this week's edition of the Hockey World News Media Guide covering the Vitality Women's Hockey League for the 2021-22 season. The Hockey World News website can be found at <https://hockeywrldnws.com/>

The Vitality website can be found at <https://www.vitality.co.uk/>

England Hockey have introduced a website where certain data regarding fixtures and possibly league tables can be found whilst the problems with GMS continue. <https://matches.englandhockey.co.uk/>

As usual, please bear in mind that this media guide is a one person compilation, so if you find any errors, please let me know, but remember that there is very little scope for double checking content compared with a dedicated media team and current circumstances are making data compilation more difficult than in previous seasons.

The design of the media guide is something which is continuing to be looked at during the season, but the current priority is to try and share as much information as possible.

PREMIER DIVISION TO EXPAND TO 12 TEAMS

England Hockey announced on Friday morning that the Vitality Women's Hockey League Premier Division would expand to 12 teams with only the eleventh team being relegated. There would also be a reprieve for the ninth placed team with the better record in Division One North/ South, plus the ninth-placed team with the best record across the Conference East, Midlands, North and West will also be reprieved from relegation.

CLOCKS GO FORWARD ON SUNDAY

British Summer Time starts at 0100 on Sunday 27 March and will end at 0200 on Sunday 30 October. Don't forget to put your clocks forward!!!

SURBITON ON CUSP OF EIGHTH TITLE

In the Top Six, Surbiton are on the cusp of their eighth successive title after they beat Clifton Robinsons 3-0 at Sugden Road on Saturday. Darcy Bourne followed up her run of three successive hat-tricks with a brace but was denied a historic fourth successive treble by the left post from a 22nd minute penalty stroke. Bourne opened the scoring with a 34th minute penalty corner conversion and then struck again from open play two minutes after half time. Meg Dowthwaite added Surbiton's third goal from a penalty corner in the 57th minute.

Surbiton lead East Grinstead by seven points with just three games remaining after Beeston rebounded from the 7-1 home mauling by Surbiton to win 3-2 in West Sussex. Alex Malzer gave East Grinstead a sixth minute lead but Beeston turned the match around by the 20th, Mads Newitt levelling in the 16th minute and Alice Huddleston putting the Nottingham club ahead, all three goals coming from open play. Lauren Burrell extended Beeston's lead with a 53rd minute penalty corner conversion, but although Sophie Bray reduced the deficit in the same manner with eight minutes to play, Beeston held on for the win. Bray and Bourne are now locked together on 17 goals in the top goalscorer chart.

Wimbledon closed to within one point of East Grinstead in their quest for a place in Europe, Fiona Burnet's 56th minute penalty corner enough to secure a 1-0 win at fourth placed Hampstead & Westminster, although only two points separate second to fourth in the race for European qualification.

HAMPSTEAD STAND BETWEEN SURBITON AND LEAGUE TITLE

Surbiton Ladies can clinch their eighth successive Vitality Women's Hockey League Premier Division title when they host fourth placed Hampstead & Westminster at Sugden Road on Saturday evening. A third win of the season over their visitors would see them at least maintain their seven point lead over second-placed East Grinstead with just two matches remaining after this weekend's fixtures.

Surbiton won 3-2 when the teams first met in Elmbridge in November to end Hampstead's nine game winning streak from the start of the season. Three weeks ago that was followed by a 4-2 win at Paddington Recreation Ground. Hampstead have tailed off disastrously with just two wins and a draw in their last seven matches since their defeat at Surbiton, but are still not mathematically eliminated, trailing Surbiton by nine points with three games to play.

East Grinstead will be hoping for a Surbiton slip up as they visit sixth-placed Clifton Robinsons for the first time this season having won 6-1 and 6-0 in West Sussex already this season. Clifton have struggled since 6 November when they last won, beating the University of Birmingham 1-0 at home, drawing one match (3-3 at Hampstead & Westminster) in their last ten games.

Barring an unlikely dip in form by Surbiton, East Grinstead, Hampstead and Wimbledon are all battling for runners-up and the second European place. East Grinstead are on 36 points, Wimbledon on 35 and Hampstead on 34.

Third-placed Wimbledon travel to fifth-placed Beeston, also for the first time this season and only the second time at Premier Division level, having won 6-0 and 4-0 at Raynes Park High School. Wimbledon last played Beeston at Nottingham in October 2020, when they won 1-0, meaning Beeston are still looking for their first goal against the South-West London club.

SWANSEA GAIN MAIDEN WIN IN PREMIER DIVISION

Swansea made history on Saturday at Loughborough Students when they won their first ever Vitality Women's Hockey League Premier Division match after going winless in their first eighteen games over the last two seasons. Abigail Romig's 25th minute opener and a second from Betsan Thomas four minutes after half time gave Swansea a 2-0 lead and although Jen Park caused a few anxious moments with the third open play goal of the game on the hour mark, the Welsh club were not to be denied their moment of glory.

Swansea battled again on Sunday, but lost narrowly at the University of Birmingham, Millie Giglio's penalty corner right on half time enough to move Birmingham back up to seventh, two points ahead of eighth placed Buckingham with a game in hand. With Birmingham originally scheduled for a bye week before the Swansea rearranged fixture, Buckingham had briefly overtaken Birmingham into seventh after their 2-1 home win over Holcombe on Saturday. Tania Escaich put Holcombe ahead in the 11th minute, but Buckingham made a second half comeback, Maddie Newlyn equalising in the 39th and Olivia Strickland earning the win in the 53rd minute in another three open play goal match.

SWANSEA COULD BE RELEGATED THIS WEEKEND

In the Bottom 5, a week after Swansea won their first ever match in the top flight, 2-1 at Loughborough Students, the Welsh club could be relegated following Friday's announcement that only the bottom club will be relegated from the Premier Division as there will be 12 clubs at the highest level for the first time since Premier 1 was introduced for one season in 2004-05. Swansea are at home to the University of Birmingham, where they lost 1-0 last Sunday in a rearranged match after going down 4-2 in the West Midlands in week 2 of Phase One.

With Holcombe and Loughborough Students, the two teams immediately above Swansea holding an eight point advantage with just three games remaining, meeting in Kent, Swansea will need to win to keep their slight hopes of avoiding relegation alive. A defeat would confirm Swansea's relegation.

Holcombe and Loughborough have had mixed fortunes this season in their meetings in Leicestershire. Loughborough won 1-0 in October, but a superb five goal haul for Tania Escaich in February helped Holcombe to a 5-2 victory.

MATCHDAY NOTES

Swansea v University of Birmingham

26 Mar - University of Birmingham - 1200

First Premier Division meeting at Swansea

Phase One meeting and first Phase Two Bottom Five meetings at the University of Birmingham.

Previous Premier Division Meetings this season at the University of Birmingham:

Phase Two Bottom Five:

20 March 2022 – University of Birmingham 1 (Millie Giglio) Swansea 0

Phase One:

2 October 2021 – University of Birmingham 4 (Lily Walker, Millie Attwell, Carter Ayars, Becky Manton)

Swansea 2 (Sara Davies, Rebecca Treharne)

Only Conference West meeting:

28 March 2009 – Swansea 0 University of Birmingham 5 (Anna Coppel 4, Jo Turnbull)

There have been very few meetings between the University of Birmingham and Swansea because when Swansea joined the England Hockey League as members of the new twelve team Premier 3 in 2004-05, Birmingham were domiciled in Premier 2. When the divisions were restructured again after one season, Birmingham spent the next three seasons in Division One, with Swansea in the National South Division.

The teams met for the only time in 2008-09 when the Conference format was introduced as a second tier below the Premier Division. The University of Birmingham won 5-0 twice on their way to the Conference West title, going unbeaten, winning 16 matches and drawing two. Birmingham then won all three matches at the Promotion Tournament, beating Conference East champions, Reading; Conference North winners, the University of Durham and Ipswich, who had finished ninth in the Premier Division but finished bottom of the Promotion Tournament table after just a draw against Durham. Birmingham have been in the Premier Division ever since.

Swansea (then known as Swansea City) stayed in the Conference West and then won promotion after finishing top of the first ever Division One North table in 2019-20 and were automatically promoted to the Premier Division, together with Wimbledon after the proposed promotion playoffs were cancelled due to Covid-19.

Birmingham won both matches so far this season including a 1-0 victory in a rearranged match last Sunday.
